Love INC Updates - October 2022 We believe the church is called to listen and care for each person in need, caring for the person beyond their immediate circumstance. With record numbers of neighbors calling, we are looking for church members with a desire to authentically listen to and pray for neighbors to come in and schedule appointments with clients on the phones in order to meet their needs. Many volunteers come in one morning or afternoon per week! If you're interested in serving the community in this way, visit loveincv.org/volunteer or call 319-266-1264.
